

Getting the Picture: Advanced Assessment Skills

With Margie Albers, LCSW

Assessment is a critical and complex skill in child welfare. This workshop is designed to provide an overview of the assessment process with an eye on engaging families in the process and gathering the salient information needed to make accurate culturally sensitive decisions. The class is designed to be skill based and case driven. Short lecture will be followed by practice using case examples.

Objectives for the class are:

- To explore the elements of an assessment.
- To know two interviewing strategies that help engage a family and facilitate getting the information needed in child welfare.
- Understand what affects the assessment process
- Given a case scenario, identify the relevant elements of assessment, what is needed and what the future steps would be.
